If you're in search of a great checking account for your business, see how Chase stacks up. Chase offers a few different checking accounts for businesses, ranging from one that's great for small companies to one that's better for a large established business. This post will explain everything you need to know, including account benefits and any associated fees, as you decide which Chase business checking account is the best fit for your business. Chase Business Checking Accounts Overview There are many benefits offered by all Chase business checking accounts. Chase Mobile[®] Banking: This feature allows you to access your Chase accounts anytime, anywhere through the Chase app, the mobile website, or even through text. Chase OnlineSM Banking: You can manage your personal and business Chase accounts including bank accounts and credit cards online with a single user ID. Access to 16,000 ATMs and more than 4,700 Chase branches. Debit cards 24/7 customer service. Chase mobile banking is one of the many features available on all Chase business checking accounts. Image Credit: Chase To open an account, you will need to visit a Chase branch with all required documentation (see below). You can easily search online for the nearest Chase branch. If you have a current business checking account at another bank, Chase makes it easy to switch by offering a step-by-step guide to help you along the way. Hot Tip: You can also apply for a Chase Business Complete Banking account online! How to Access Chase Business Checking Information There are 2 ways to access more information about Chase Business checking accounts. Go to chase.com and click on the drop-down menu under Open an Account. Select Chase for Business, then select Business Checking. Go directly to chase.com/business and select Business Checking. Visit chase.com/business for more information about their business checking accounts. Image Credit: Chase Types of Chase Business Checking Accounts There are a few distinct business checking accounts offered by Chase. The size of your business will be a big factor in determining which account is right for you. Chase Business Complete BankingSM Chase Performance Business Checking Chase Platinum Business Checking 1. Chase Business Complete Banking (Most Popular) Chase recently launched the Chase Business Complete Banking which has no minimum deposit to open an account. Customers have the option to open their account online or in-branch. Benefits Earn $300 when you open a new Chase Business Complete Checking account. For new Chase business checking customers with qualifying activities. Multiple ways to waive the Monthly Service Fee, including maintaining a minimum daily balance or purchases on your Chase Ink[®] Business credit card. Built-in card acceptance. Accept card payments anytime, anywhere in the U.S., and get transparent pricing with Chase QuickAcceptSM Same-day deposits with QuickAcceptSM. Easy account management through Chase Business Online and the Chase Mobile[®] app. Unlimited electronic deposits, ACH and Chase QuickDepositSM. Convenient access to more than 16,000 ATMs and more than 4,700 branches. Cost There is a monthly service fee of $15 with ways to have this fee waived. 2. Chase Performance Business Checking (Mid-Size Businesses) This type of business checking will appeal to mid-size businesses that aren't too big, but not too small (sort of the Goldilocks of Chase business checking accounts!). There is a minimum $25 deposit to open a Chase Performance account. Cost There is a monthly service fee of $30 that's waived when you maintain an average daily balance of $35,000 in qualifying business deposit accounts. Benefits 250 free transactions each month. Unlimited electronic deposits. Unlimited incoming wires plus 2 outgoing domestic wires with no fee per statement cycle. No fee for up to $20,000 in cash deposits each month. No charge for Positive Pay and Reverse Positive Pay. Hot Tip: If you're interested in opening a Chase business savings account along with your Chase business checking account, Chase provides excellent options for that as well. 3. Chase Platinum Business Checking (Large Businesses) Designed for large businesses, the Chase Platinum Business Checking account has the largest monthly fee but has the greatest benefits. Cost There is a monthly service fee of $95 that is waived when you maintain an average daily balance of $100,000 in qualifying business deposit and business investment accounts. Even with this premium account, the required minimum deposit is still only $25. Benefits 500 free transactions each month. Unlimited electronic deposits. Unlimited incoming wires plus 4 outgoing domestic wires with no fee per statement cycle. No fee for up to $25,000 in cash deposits each month. No charge for Positive Pay and Reverse Positive Pay. Reduced balance requirement for Chase Private Clients. Monthly service fee waived on a linked Chase Business Premier SavingsSM account. Bottom Line: Chase offers different business checking accounts. Chase Performance Business Checking, and Chase Platinum Business Checking. Requirements for Opening a Chase Business Checking Account Chase business checking account requirements vary based on the type of business you have. 1.
